Welcome to Llyn Gwynant barns!

A reminder of the conditions for using the barns:

- Barn users are responsible for fire safety and must abide by displayed fire equipment instructions
- Woodburners in barns must be used with care.
- No portable heaters, catering equipment, candles, flares or fireworks to be brought on site.
- Arrival time for the barns is after 4.00 pm, and please leave by 11.00 am unless otherwise arranged.
- Vehicles are restricted to the barnyard unless as arranged for large groups.
- Fires: only using our wood and on firepits at least 6 m from barns, or on the firesite in Cae hendre
- Only acoustic music outside, and only during the day. Sound systems in the barns must be barely audible on the campsite prior to 11.00 pm and not audible on the campsite after midnight.
- Barn users do not have the right to roam over the camping fields though they are welcome on the campsite beach. Dogs are not allowed in the barns and must be kept on a leash at all times.
- No nails, staples or other sharp objects are to be used in any wood anywhere in barns.
- Barns and fields must be left tidy, rubbish in the bins and glass and cans separate for recycling.
- The maximum number of people at any function is 300.
- Security during your stay is your own responsibility. Keys to the outside doors will be supplied.
- Please leave the barns in the tidy condition you find them: they will be inspected before your bond is returned.
