Llyn Gwynant Campsite lies in Gwynedd county

By road: Turn off the A498. Access is via a left turn going north, a careful right turn going south.

By bus: In summer the Snowdon Sherpa buses drive past the campsite from Caernarfon to Pen-y-Pass (route S4) or from Porthmadog to Betws-y-Coed (route 97/97A). You can find the routes and timetables on www.gwynedd.gov.uk

By train: The nearest train stations are Betws-y-Coed, Bangor and Porthmadog, with direct trains London - Bangor. All these are connected to the buses, from Bangor you need two connections via Caernarfon and Llanberis.

Croeso / Welcome

To the nature lovers' campsite

At the head of Llyn Gwynant lake, below Snowdon, our campsite lies in the very heart of Snowdonia. Enjoy the outdoors in magnificent surroundings.

Llyn Gwynant Campsite is open from March to November. Our barns are available to groups for camping or for functions most of the year.

Bookings: We do not have set pitches so do not take bookings in advance, except for groups of more than 20 people who should use the Groups link on our website www.gwynant.com.

Facilities: Our campsite is not over-developed, but has everything you need to be comfortable including toilets, hot showers and dishwashing facilities. We do not have power hookups.

Camping Barn: Grade II listed stone barns are near the campsite with kitchen, woodburning stove, a bunk barn, large indoor function area, and separate camping fields.

What we offer:

- * Magnificent natural surroundings
- * Lake beach and river for all to enjoy
- * A place to camp that suits you - no set pitches
- * Peace and quiet, no radios allowed on site
- * Campfires - only with wood bought on site
- * Adventure activities / instruction in summer
- * Meadow reserved for no-vehicle camping
- * Gwynant is a green site with recycling
- * Public telephone, no mobile reception

The main paths up Snowdon and many other mountain walks are accessible directly from the campsite. Mountain bike tracks are also nearby.

Adventure activities available from the site in summer include kayaking, canoeing, orienteering, coastering, climbing and abseiling.

The nearest shop is the Caffi Gwynant Café, a 2 mile scenic walk away around the lake. Grocery shops are at Beddgelert and Llanberis. The nearest pub is the Pen y Gwryd hotel 2 miles north.

Llyn Gwynant Campsite is the ideal base to enjoy Snowdonia. See www.gwynant.com for more.
